During that time, the Company has pushed through comprehensive structural reforms which have resulted in the construction of a strong business structure for ensuring the enhancement of the corporate value and common interest of the shareholders of the Company. And the Company has built a robust corporate constitution, which enabled the Company to accelerate the investment of the management resources into its growth businesses to promote its growth strategies. However, the Company’s business environment has been severe and uncertain and has been affected by the long-term economic deterioration in Europe and other factors. The Plan will be effective from the conclusion of the 117th Shareholders Meeting until the conclusion of the ordinary general meeting of the shareholders for the final fiscal year ending within three years of the conclusion of the 117th Shareholders Meeting.

The renewal of the Plan has been resolved by all the directors including one outside director at the meeting of the board of directors held today, and all the corporate auditors including three outside corporate auditors have expressed the opinion that they don't have any objection to the renewal.

The major shareholders of the Company as of March 31, 2013 are as described in Attachment 1, and the Company has not received any specific notices or proposals regarding large-scale acquisition of the shares in the Company to date from specific third parties.

I. Basic Policy Regarding the Persons Who Control Decisions on the Company's Financial and Business Policies

The Company's board of directors to whom its shareholders have delegated the management of the Company, believes, to fulfill its responsibility, that it should seek to ensure and enhance the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders through sustainable growth with a mid-to-long term perspective in determining the financial and business policies of the Fujifilm Group (the "Group"). Based on this policy, and under the corporate philosophy of the Group that states "we will use leading-edge, proprietary technologies to provide top-quality products and services that contribute to the advancement of culture, science, technology and industry, as well as improved health and environmental protection in society. Our overarching aim is to help enhance the quality of life of people worldwide," the Company has strived to enhance its corporate value through, among other similar methods, expanding the sources of the corporate value of the Group, that are, namely, its "diversity of advanced and innovative technologies" and "global network," and its "human resources" and "corporate culture" that support such technologies and network.

The Company believes that the persons who control decisions on the Company's financial and business policies need to be the ones who understand the source of the corporate value of the Group and will make it possible to continually and persistently ensure and enhance the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders from a mid-to-long term perspective.

The Company believes that a decision on any proposed acquisition that aims to obtain corporate control of the Company should ultimately be made based on the intent of its shareholders as a whole. On the other hand, there are some types of large-scale acquisition that benefit neither the corporate value of the target company / the common interests of its shareholders including (i) those with a purpose that would obviously harm the corporate value of the target company / the common interests of its shareholders, (ii) those with the potential to substantially coerce shareholders into selling their shares, (iii) those that do not provide sufficient time or information for the target company's board of directors and shareholders to consider the details of the large-scale acquisition or for the target company's board of directors to make an alternative proposal, and (iv) those that do not provide the target company sufficient opportunity to negotiate with the acquirer.

Therefore, the Company believes that if an acquisition proposal is made, it is necessary to introduce a framework that ensures necessary information and a reasonable amount of time for consideration and negotiation of the proposal and that prevents abusive acquisitions to ensure and enhance the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders.

II. The Source of Corporate Value of the Group and Special Initiatives to Implement the Basic Policy

The Company was established with the aim of manufacturing domestic movie film in Japan. Subsequently, the Company succeeded in the domestic production of photographic film and X-ray film and consolidated its position as an all-round manufacturer of photosensitive materials. The Company then diversified into printing, electronic photographic imaging, and other businesses, while also entering overseas markets and expanding its network internationally. The Company also took initiatives in digitalization at an early date. To respond to the rapid changes taking place in the business environment along with this trend toward digitalization, the Company adopted measures to reform its business structure by “enhancing consolidated management,” “implementing comprehensive structural reforms at all management levels,” and “building new growth strategies,” with the objective of making a “Second Foundation” of its business activities. The sources of corporate value of the Group are its “diversity of advanced and innovative technologies” and its “global network,” combined with its “human resources” and “corporate culture,” both of which support these sources of value. With these as a base, the Group is working to achieve further gains in corporate value.

1. The Sources of the Corporate Value of the Company

1.1 A Diversity of Advanced and Innovative Technologies Accumulated since the Group’s Establishment

The Group has cultivated a broad technological base in its photosensitive material, document solutions and other businesses which include organic chemistry, inorganic chemistry, optics, analytics, imaging and software, and other fields. Building on this technology platform, the Group has accumulated a diversity of core technologies in the fields of highly functional materials, fine chemicals, electronics, mechatronics, production process, and others. This accumulation of technologies has become the Group’s intellectual property and know-how and, by also applying these technologies in business processes, they have provided the foundation for the pursuit of the Group’s business activities and become a source of competitiveness. The number of companies in the world with such a diversity of technologies is limited. The Group’s accumulation of this “diversity of advanced and innovative technologies” is being put to good use in advancing the development of its growth businesses, which include, in particular, “health-care,” “highly functional materials” and “document solutions.” These technologies are the driving force for the Group’s development of new businesses.

1.2 The Group's Global Network

The Group's "global network" comprises its business systems in Japan and the rest of the world, which include its integrated chain for raw materials procurement, R&D, production, logistics, sales, and after-sales service, and which are supported by the trust and confidence the Group has won from its customers and other stakeholders, the power of its brand, and other strengths it has built over many years. This global network has enabled the Group to build a strong competitive position, expand its growth businesses, develop new businesses, and build a powerful base for expanding its operations globally, including the newly emerging markets.

1.3 The Group's "Human Resources" and "Open, Fair, and Clear (Transparent) Corporate Culture"

The Group's "diversity of advanced and innovative technologies" and its "global network" are supported by its "human resources." Over its history, the Group has confronted many kinds of crises that have shaken its operations to their very foundations, including the so-called "silver shock" in 1980 and the "digital shock" that began in the year 2000. But with the support provided by its "human resources," it has overcome these crises and implemented structural reforms. In addition, the Group's "human resources" have been essential for realizing its vision of "Anchored by an open, fair and clear (transparent) corporate culture and with leading-edge, proprietary technologies, the Company is determined to remain a leading company by boldly taking up the challenge of developing new products and creating new value."

By making this vision a reality, the Group has been able to offer high-quality products and services that meet customer needs. Also, by proactively engaging in CSR activities, including environmental preservation and contributing to the community, the Group has responded to the expectations of its stakeholders including its shareholders. "Human resources" and "an open, fair, and clear (transparent) corporate culture" are major sources of the Group's driving power to enhance its corporate value.

2. Initiatives to Enhance Corporate Value

The Group's business environment has been severe and uncertain and has been heavily affected by the long-term economic deterioration in Europe and other factors. Amid these circumstances, the Group strongly promotes transformation of the business structure to establish new revenue bases.

In specific, the Group positions the three business fields which have high market growth and which leverage the Group's technologies to the full extent —“healthcare,” “highly functional materials” and “document solutions”—as key driving forces for growth and strategically concentrates the management resources on those business fields to substantially increase the sales of the Group.

The business field of “healthcare” is expected to be a key pillar of our long-term growth, and the Group is seeking to become a comprehensive healthcare company that provides services in the areas of “prevention,” “diagnosis” and “treatment.” Among them, in the “diagnosis” area, the Group is further enhancing its operations and realizing growth with respect to the medical IT, endoscope, and ultrasound diagnostic equipment businesses. In the “treatment” area, through expansion of the sales of the core products of Toyama Chemical Co., Ltd., significant cost reductions and others, the Group is progressively establishing a business base generating profit in a sustained manner. Over the medium term, the Group is seeking to greatly increase both sales and profits by launching and expanding sales of new drugs with unique features in the oncology field and expanding the biopharmaceutical product business, including contract manufacturing of biopharmaceuticals.

In the “highly functional materials” field, the Group keeps ensuring the profitability in the flat panel display materials business by further expansion of the sales of the TV applications while concurrently working to expand the sales of films for small- and medium-sized displays with growth potential. Further, the Group is striving to fully leverage its highly functional materials development capabilities to launch new products in the environmental and energy field and the touch panel field with growth potential and thereby maintaining the business growth.

In the “document solutions” field, the Group is working to accelerate its expansion of global services business and solutions business with growth potential, while also enhancing sales in China and other emerging economies, and thereby realizing further business growth.

Furthermore, in all the business fields other than the above three, the Group will promote new products launches by leveraging the Group's unique technologies and accelerate implementation of such global marketing strategies as expansion of sales mainly in emerging countries through marketing activities deeply rooted in local markets. In addition, the Group is seeking to enhance its on-site marketing power through 4 principal measures such as to i) strengthen sales and marketing capabilities, ii) strengthen the cost-competitiveness of products, iii) speed up and increase the efficiency of R&D, and iv) enhance the value productivity of administrative and support departments.

To maximize the corporate value of the Group as a whole, the Company as a holding company of the Group proactively moves forward rapidly and decisively with strategic Group management and optimization of allocation of management resources of the Group. The Company is also working toward further enhancement of the transparency and soundness of the Group's management by establishing the common Group standards for CSR and other activities.

By quickly and decisively implementing these management measures, the Group works to ensure its growth in the mid-to-long term and further increase its corporate value.

3. Enhancement of Corporate Governance

The Company recognizes that its principal mission is to keep improving its corporate value. To accomplish this mission, the Company understands that enhancement and improvement of its corporate governance systems is a management task with maximum priority.

The Company has positioned the board of directors as the organization to determine basic Group management policies and strategies and other important matters relating to business execution as well as to supervise the implementation of business affairs. The Company has adopted an executive officer system under which the executive officers carry out business affairs in accordance with the basic policies and strategies formulated by the board of directors. The Company's Articles of Incorporation provides that the board shall consist of up to 12 directors. Currently, the board has eight directors, including one outside director who has been appointed with the aim of enhancement of the supervisory functions of the board. In addition, to better clarify their missions and responsibilities and to timely cope with changes in the business environment, board members and executive officers are appointed for a one-year term of office.

The board of corporate auditors currently consists of five members, including three outside corporate auditors. Based on the understanding that the board of corporate auditors is an independent organization with responsibilities in the Company's corporate governance system, the corporate auditors examine the directors' performance of their duties in accordance with audit policies and an audit plan formulated by the board of corporate auditors. At their board meeting, the corporate auditors share information on matters subject to auditing. In principle, all full-time corporate auditors attend meetings of the management council, which discusses the matters to be deliberated by the board of directors and other important matters. In addition, the full-time corporate auditors regularly exchange opinions with the representative directors.

The Company has designated one outside director and three outside corporate auditors as independent director and independent corporate auditors respectively, and has notified the Japanese stock exchanges where the shares in the Company are listed, of this designation.

III. Purpose of the Plan and Plan Outline

1. Purpose of the Plan

The Company will renew the Plan for the purpose of ensuring and enhancing the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders in accordance with the Basic Policy set out in Section I above.

The Company's thoughts regarding renewal of the Plan are as follows.

The Company's board of directors believes that persons who would propose a large-scale acquisition in a manner that does not contribute to the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders would be inappropriate to become persons who control decisions on the Company's financial and business policies. Thus, the Company determined to renew the Plan in order to prevent decisions on the Company's financial and business policies from being controlled by persons deemed inappropriate and to deter large-scale acquisitions that are detrimental to the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders, with the aim of, on the occasion that the Company receives a large-scale acquisition proposal from an acquirer for shares in the Company, enabling the Company's board of directors to present an alternative proposal to the shareholders or ensuring necessary time and information for the shareholders to decide whether or not to accept the large-scale acquisition proposal, and enabling the Company to negotiate for the benefit of the shareholders.

2. Plan Outline

The Plan sets out procedures necessary to achieve the purpose stated above, including requirements for acquirers to provide information in advance in the case that the acquirer intends to make an acquisition of 20% or more of the Company's share certificates or other equity securities.

The acquirer must not effect a large-scale acquisition of the share certificates and other equity securities in the Company until and unless the Company's board of directors or the Confirmation Meeting (as defined in section (g) of 3.1 'Procedures for Triggering the Plan' below; the same shall apply hereinafter) determines not to trigger the Plan in accordance with the procedures for the Plan.

In the event that an acquirer does not follow the procedures set out in the Plan or a large-scale acquisition of shares and other equity securities in the Company could harm the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders, etc. and if the acquisition satisfies the triggering requirements set out in the Plan, the Company will allot stock acquisition rights by means of a gratis allotment of stock acquisition rights (shinkabu yoyakuken mushou wariate) to all shareholders, except the Company, at that time. The stock acquisition rights will have (a) an exercise condition that does not allow the acquirer to exercise the rights as a general rule and (b) an acquisition provision to the effect that the Company may acquire the stock acquisition rights in exchange for shares in the Company from holders of the stock acquisition rights other than the acquirer.

In order to eliminate arbitrary decisions by directors, the Company will establish the Independent Committee solely composed of outside directors, outside corporate auditors or experts who are independent from the management of the Company to make objective decisions with respect to matters such as the implementation or non-implementation of the gratis allotment of stock acquisition rights or the acquisition of stock acquisition rights under the Plan. In addition, the Company's board of directors may, if prescribed in the Plan, hold a Confirmation Meeting and confirm the intent of the Company's shareholders regarding the implementation of the gratis allotment of the stock acquisition rights.

Transparency with respect to the course of those procedures will be ensured by timely disclosure to all of the Company's shareholders.

The outline of procedures set out in the Plan is described in Attachment 2 attached hereto for reference.

If the Independent Committee determines that the Acquisition falls under any of the trigger events set out below at 3.2, ‘Requirements for the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights’ (collectively “Trigger Event”), the Independent Committee will recommend the implementation of the gratis allotment of stock acquisition rights (as detailed in 3.3 ‘Outline of the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights;’ such stock acquisition rights hereinafter referred to as “Stock Acquisition Rights”) to the Company’s board of directors except in any specific case where further information disclosure by the Acquirer or negotiation or discussion with the Acquirer is necessary. If it is concerned that an Acquisition may fall under the second Trigger Event (“Trigger Event (2)”) set out in 3.2, ‘Requirements for the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights,’ the Independent Committee may recommend implementation of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights subject to confirmation of the intent of the Company’s shareholders in advance.

Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, even after the Independent Committee has already made a recommendation for the implementation of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, if the Independent Committee determines that either of the events (A) or (B) below applies, it may make a new recommendation that (i) (on or before the second business day prior to the ex-rights date with respect to the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights) the Company should cancel the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, or (ii) (from the effective date of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights and until the day immediately prior to the commencement date of the exercise period of the Stock Acquisition Rights) the Company should acquire the Stock Acquisition Rights for no consideration.

- (A) The Acquirer withdraws the Acquisition or the Acquisition otherwise ceases to exist after the recommendation.
- (B) There is no longer any Trigger Event due to a change or the like in the facts or other matters on which the recommendation decision was made.

(ii) Recommendations for the Non-Triggering of the Plan

If the Independent Committee determines there is no Trigger Event with respect to the Acquisition, the Independent Committee will recommend the non-implementation of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights to the Company's board of directors, regardless of whether the Independent Committee Consideration Period has ended.

Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, even after the Independent Committee has already made one recommendation for the non-implementation of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, if there is a change or the like in the facts or other matters on which the recommendation decision was made and a Trigger Event arises, the Independent Committee may make a new recommendation that the Company should implement the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights.

(iii) Extension of the Independent Committee Consideration Period

If the Independent Committee does not reach a recommendation for either the implementation or non-implementation of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights during the initial Independent Committee Consideration Period, the Independent Committee may, to the reasonable extent that it is considered necessary for actions such as consideration of the terms of the Acquirer's Acquisition, consideration of an alternative proposal and negotiation with the Acquirer, extend the Independent Committee Consideration Period (up to 30 days). However, the Independent Committee may not extend the Independent Committee Consideration Period unless it has reasonable grounds for such extension (and if the Independent Committee extends the Independent Committee Consideration Period, it shall disclose such grounds). If the Independent Committee Consideration Period is extended, the Independent Committee will continue to collect information, deliberate and perform similar activities, and use its best efforts to make a recommendation for the implementation or non-implementation of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights within the extended period.

(f) Resolutions of the Board of Directors

The Company's board of directors, in exercising their role under the Companies Act, will pass a resolution relating to the implementation or non-implementation of a gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights respecting to the maximum extent any recommendation made by the Independent Committee as described above. If a Confirmation Meeting is convened in accordance with (g) below, the Company's board of directors will be subject to any resolution at the Confirmation Meeting.

If the Independent Committee recommends not to implement the gratis allotment of the Stock Acquisition Rights or if the Confirmation Meeting resolves to reject the implementation of the gratis allotment of the Stock Acquisition Rights, the Company's board of directors will not implement the gratis allotment of the Stock Acquisition Rights.

(g) Convocation of the Confirmation Meeting

Upon the implementation of the gratis allotment of the Stock Acquisition Rights pursuant to the Plan, the Company's board of directors may convene a meeting of shareholders to confirm the intent of the Company's shareholders regarding the implementation of the gratis allotment of the Stock Acquisition Rights (the quorum, etc of general shareholders meetings set out under the Companies Act and the Articles of Incorporation of the Company will apply mutatis mutandis to the quorum, etc. of such meeting of shareholders; the "Confirmation Meeting"), if (i) the Independent Committee recommends implementation of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights subject to confirmation of the intent of the shareholders in advance in accordance with (e)(i) above, or (ii) the applicability of Trigger Event (2) becomes an issue and the board of directors determines it appropriate to confirm the shareholders' intent for the Acquisition taking into consideration the time required to convene a Confirmation Meeting or other matters pursuant to the duty of care of a good manager.

(h) Information Disclosure

When operating the Plan, the Company will disclose information in a timely manner on matters that the Independent Committee or the Company's board of directors considers appropriate including the progress of each procedure set out in the Plan (including the fact that the Acquirer's Statement and Acquisition Document have been submitted, that the Independent Committee Consideration Period has commenced, and that the Independent Committee Consideration Period has been extended), an outline of recommendations made by the Independent Committee, and an outline of resolutions by the Company's board of directors, in accordance with the applicable laws and ordinances or the rules of the financial instruments exchange.

3.2 Requirements for the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights

The requirements to trigger the Plan to implement gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights are as follows. As described above at (e) of 3.1, 'Procedures for Triggering the Plan,' the Company's board of directors will make a determination as to whether any of the following requirements applies to an Acquisition for which the recommendation by the Independent Committee has been obtained.

Trigger Event (1)

The Acquisition is not in compliance with the procedures set out in the Plan (including cases where reasonable time and information necessary to consider the details of the Acquisition is not provided) and it is reasonable to implement the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights.

Trigger Event (2)

The Acquisition falls under any of the items below and it is reasonable to implement the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights.

- (a) An Acquisition that threatens to cause obvious harm to the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders through any of the following actions (provided that the Company will not implement the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights solely because the Acquisition formally falls under this item):
 - (i) A buyout of share certificates to require such share certificates to be purchased by the Company's side at a high price.
 - (ii) Management that achieves an advantage for the Acquirer to the detriment of the Company, such as temporary control of the Company's management for the low-cost acquisition of the Company's material assets.
 - (iii) Diversion of the Company's assets to secure or repay debts of the Acquirer or its group company.
 - (iv) Temporary control of the Company's management to bring about a disposal of high-value assets that have no current relevance to the Company's business and declaring temporarily high dividends from the profits of the disposal, or selling the shares at a high price taking advantage of the opportunity afforded by the sudden rise in share prices created by the temporarily high dividends.
- (b) Certain Acquisitions that threaten to have the effect of coercing shareholders into selling shares, such as coercive two-tiered tender offers (meaning acquisitions of shares including tender offers, in which no offer is made to acquire all shares in the initial acquisition, and acquisition terms for the second stage are set that are unfavorable or unclear).

- (c) Acquisitions the financial conditions of which (including amount and type of consideration and the timing and method of payment of consideration) are inadequate or inappropriate in light of the corporate value of the Company /the common interests of its shareholders.
- (d) Acquisitions the proposal of which from an Acquirer includes the contents (including legality and feasibility of the Acquisitions, management policies or business plans after the Acquisitions and policies dealing with the Company's shareholders (excluding the Acquirer) after the Acquisitions, as well as the financial conditions of the Acquisitions) that are materially likely to be contrary to the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders, by harming the Company's diversity of advanced and innovative technologies, global network, human resources and corporate culture which are indispensable to the generation of the corporate value of the Company.

3.3 Outline of the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights

An outline of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights to be implemented under the Plan is described below.

(a) Number of Stock Acquisition Rights

The Company will implement a gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights in the same number as the most recent total number of issued shares in the Company (excluding the number of shares in the Company held by the Company at that time) on a certain date (the "Allotment Date") that is separately determined in a resolution by the Company's board of directors relating to the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights ("Gratis Allotment Resolution").

(b) Shareholders Eligible for Allotment

The Company will allot the Stock Acquisition Rights to those shareholders, other than the Company, who are recorded in the Company's latest register of shareholders on the Allotment Date, at a ratio, in principle, of one Stock Acquisition Right for each share in the Company held.

(c) Effective Date of Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights

The effective date of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights will be separately determined in the Gratis Allotment Resolution.

(d) Number of Shares to be Acquired upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights

The number of shares in the Company to be acquired upon exercise of each Stock Acquisition Right (the “Applicable Number of Shares”) shall be separately determined by the Company’s board of directors in the Gratis Allotment Resolution (one share as a general rule; provided, however, that the board of directors may determine that, if the number of shares of the Company to be delivered to the holders of the Stock Acquisition Rights includes a fraction of less than one, the Company will round off that fraction).

(e) Amount of Contributions upon Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights

Contributions upon exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights are to be in cash, and the amount per share in the Company to be contributed upon exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights will be an amount separately determined in the Gratis Allotment Resolution within the range of a minimum of one yen and a maximum of the amount equivalent to one-half of the fair market value of one share in the Company. “Fair market value” means an amount equivalent to the average closing price (including quotations) for regular transactions of the common stock of the Company on the Tokyo Stock Exchange on each day during the 90 day period prior to the Gratis Allotment Resolution (excluding the days on which trades are not made), with any fraction less than one yen after such calculation to be rounded up to the nearest whole yen.

(f) Exercise Period of the Stock Acquisition Rights

The commencement date will be a date separately determined in the Gratis Allotment Resolution (this commencement date of the exercise period shall be referred to as the “Exercise Period Commencement Date”), and the period will, in principle, be a period from one month to six months long as separately determined in the Gratis Allotment Resolution.

(g) Conditions for Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights

Except where any exceptional event¹² occurs, the following parties may not exercise the

¹² Specifically, the Company intends to set out that an “exceptional event” means when (x) an Acquirer cancels or revokes an Acquisition, or promises that it will not conduct any subsequent Acquisition, after the Gratis Allotment Resolution and the Acquirer or other Non-Qualified Parties dispose of their shares in the Company through a securities firm appointed and authorized by the Company to do so and (y) the Acquirer’s shareholding ratio determined by the Company’s board of directors (when calculating the shareholding ratio, Non-Qualified Parties other than the Acquirer and its Joint Holders are deemed to be Acquirer’s Joint Holders, and Stock Acquisition Rights held by Non-Qualified Parties, the conditions of which have not been satisfied, are excluded) (the “Non-Qualified Parties’ Shareholding Ratio”) falls below the lower of (i) the Non-Qualified Parties’ Shareholding Ratio before the Acquisition or (ii) 20%, the Stock Acquisition Rights (the parties falling under (I) through (VI) below shall collectively be referred to as “Non-Qualified Parties”):

- (I) Specified Large Holders;¹³
- (II) Joint Holders of Specified Large Holders;
- (III) Specified Large Purchasers;¹⁴
- (IV) Persons having a Special Relationship with Specified Large Purchasers;
- (V) Any transferee of, or successor to, the Stock Acquisition Rights of any party falling under (I) through (IV) without the approval of the Company’s board of directors; or
- (VI) Any Affiliated Party¹⁵ of any party falling under (I) through (V).

Acquirer or other Non-Qualified Parties making the disposal may exercise Stock Acquisition Rights to the extent that the number of shares to be issued or delivered upon exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights is up to the number of shares disposed of and to the extent of the ratio under either (i) or (ii) above. Detailed conditions and procedures for exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights by Non-Qualified Parties will be determined separately by the Company’s board of directors.

¹³ “Specified Large Holder” means, in principle, a party who is a holder of share certificates, etc., issued by the Company and whose holding ratio of share certificates, etc. in respect of such share certificates, etc. is at least 20% (including any party who is deemed to fall under the above by the Company’s board of directors); provided, however, that a party that the Company’s board of directors recognizes as a party that unintentionally falls under the foregoing definition such as in case of the acquisition of own shares by the Company (this does not apply if the party subsequently intentionally acquires shares in the Company), a party that the Company’s board of directors recognizes as a party whose acquisition or holding of share certificates, etc., of the Company is not contrary to the Company’s corporate value / the common interests of shareholders or any specific other party that the board of directors determines in the Gratis Allotment Resolution is not a Specified Large Holder. The same is applied throughout this document.

¹⁴ “Specified Large Purchaser” means, in principle, a person who makes a public announcement of purchase, etc., (as defined in Article 27-2(1) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act; the same is applied throughout this Note 14) of share certificates, etc., (as defined in Article 27-2(1) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act; the same is applied throughout this Note 14) issued by the Company through a tender offer and whose ratio of ownership of share certificates, etc., in respect of such share certificates, etc., owned by such person after such purchase, etc., (including similar ownership as prescribed in Article 7(1) of the Order of the Enforcement of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act) is at least 20% when combined with the ratio of ownership of share certificates, etc., of a person having a special relationship (including any party who is deemed to fall under the above by the Company’s board of directors); provided, however, that a party that the Company’s board of directors recognizes as a party whose acquisition or holding of share certificates, etc., of the Company is not contrary to the Company’s corporate value / the common interests of shareholders or certain other party that the Company’s board of directors determines in the Gratis Allotment Resolution is not a Specified Large Purchaser. The same is applied throughout this document.

Further, nonresidents of Japan who are required to follow certain procedures under applicable foreign laws and ordinances to exercise the Stock Acquisition Rights may not as a general rule exercise the Stock Acquisition Rights (provided, however, that the Stock Acquisition Rights held by nonresidents will be subject to acquisition by the Company in exchange for shares in the Company as set out in (ii) of paragraph (i) below, 'Acquisition of the Stock Acquisition Rights by the Company,' subject to confirmation of compliance with applicable laws and ordinances). In addition, anyone who fails to submit a written undertaking, in the form prescribed by the Company and containing representations and warranties regarding matters such as the fact that he or she satisfies the exercise conditions of the Stock Acquisition Rights, indemnity clauses and other covenants, may not exercise the Stock Acquisition Rights.

(h) Assignment of Stock Acquisition Rights

Any acquisition of the Stock Acquisition Rights by assignment requires the approval of the Company's board of directors.

(i) Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by the Company

(i) At any time on or before the date immediately prior to the Exercise Period Commencement Date, if the Company's board of directors deems that it is appropriate for the Company to acquire the Stock Acquisition Rights, the Company may, on a day that falls on a date separately determined by the Company's board of directors, acquire all of the Stock Acquisition Rights for no consideration.

(ii) On a date separately determined by the Company's board of directors, the Company may acquire all of the Stock Acquisition Rights that have not been exercised before or on the day immediately prior to such date determined by the Company's board of directors, that are held by parties other than Non-Qualified Parties (if any) and, in exchange, deliver shares in the Company in the number equivalent to the Applicable Number of Shares for each Stock Acquisition Right (provided, however, that the board of directors may determine that, if the number of shares of the Company to be delivered to the holders of the Stock Acquisition Rights includes a fraction of less than one, the Company will round off that fraction; the same shall apply hereinafter in this item (ii)).

Further, if, on or after the date upon which the acquisition takes place, the Company's board of directors recognizes the existence of any party holding Stock Acquisition Rights other than Non-Qualified Parties, the Company may, on a date determined by the Company's board of directors that falls after the date upon which the acquisition described above takes place, acquire all of the Stock Acquisition Rights held by that party that have not been exercised by or on the day immediately prior to such date determined by the Company's board of directors (if any) and, in exchange, deliver shares in the Company in the number equivalent to the number of the Applicable Number of Shares for each Stock Acquisition Right. The same will apply thereafter. However, if the Company acquires the Stock Acquisition Rights held by Non-Qualified Parties, it will not make any payment in exchange therefor.

(j) Delivery of Stock Acquisition Rights in Case of Merger, Absorption-type Demerger (kyushu bunkatsu), Incorporation-type Demerger (shinsetsu bunkatsu), Share Exchange (kabushiki koukan), and Share Transfer (kabushiki iten)

These matters will be separately determined in the Gratis Allotment Resolution.

(k) Issuance of Certificates Representing the Stock Acquisition Rights
Certificates representing the Stock Acquisition Rights will not be issued.

(l) Other

In addition, the details of the Stock Acquisition Rights will be separately determined in the Gratis Allotment Resolution.

3.4 Effective Period, Abolition and Amendment of the Plan

The effective period of the Plan will be from the conclusion of the 117th Shareholders Meeting until the conclusion of the ordinary general meeting of shareholders relating to the final fiscal year ending within three years of the conclusion of the 117th Shareholders Meeting.

However, if, before the expiration of the effective period of the Plan (the "Effective Period"), the Company's general shareholders meeting or the Company's board of directors resolves to abolish the Plan, the Plan will be abolished in accordance with the resolution.

Further, subject to the approval of the Independent Committee, the Company's Board of Directors may revise or amend the Plan even during the Effective Period, in cases where the establishment, amendment, or abolition of a law, ordinance, or financial instruments exchange rule, etc., concerning the Plan make such revisions or amendments appropriate, or in cases where typographical errors, etc., make it appropriate to revise the Plan's wording.

If the Plan is abolished, modified or amended, the Company will promptly disclose the fact that such abolition, modification or amendment has taken place, and (in the event of a modification or amendment) the details of the modification, amendment and any other matters.

3.5 Revision Due to Amendment to Laws and Ordinances

The provisions of laws and ordinances referred to under the Plan are subject to the prevailing provisions as of May 10, 2013. If it becomes necessary after such date to amend the terms and conditions or definitions of terms set out in the paragraphs above due to the formulation, amendment or abolishment of laws and ordinances, the terms and conditions or definitions of terms set out in the paragraphs above will be read accordingly as required to a reasonable extent, taking into consideration the purposes of such formulation, amendment or abolishment.

4. Impact on Shareholders and Investors

4.1 Impact on Shareholders and Investors Upon Renewal of the Plan

Upon renewal, the Plan will have no direct or material impact on shareholders and investors. This is because, at that time, no actual gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights will be implemented.

4.2 Impact on Shareholders and Investors at the Time of the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights

(i) Procedures for Shareholders upon Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights

If the Company's board of directors passes a resolution for a gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, the Company's board of directors will also decide the Allotment Date in the same resolution and give public notice of this Allotment Date. In this case, the Company will make a gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights to the shareholders who are recorded in the Company's latest register of shareholders as of the Allotment Date (the "Entitled Shareholders") for, in principle, one Stock Acquisition Right per share in the Company held by the Entitled Shareholders. All Entitled Shareholders will become Stock Acquisition Right holders as a matter of course on the effective date of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, and no further procedures, such as applying for such gratis allotment, will be necessary.

In addition, even after the Company's board of directors passes a resolution for gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, the Company may, by respecting any recommendation of the Independent Committee described above at section (e)(i) of 3.1, 'Procedures for Triggering the Plan,' to the maximum extent, (i) (on or before the second business day prior to the ex-rights date with respect to the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights), cancel the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, or (ii) (from the effective date of the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights and until the day immediately prior to the commencement date of the exercise period) acquire the Stock Acquisition Rights for no consideration. In such cases, no dilution of the value per share in the Company held by the shareholders will result, and it is likely that any investors who have sold or bought the shares in the Company expecting to see such a dilution will suffer unexpected losses as a result of a fluctuation in the share price.

(ii) Procedures for Exercising Stock Acquisition Rights

The Company will deliver, as a general rule, a document necessary to be submitted for the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights (in the form prescribed by the Company and containing necessary matters such as the terms and number of the Stock Acquisition Rights for exercise and the exercise date for the Stock Acquisition Rights, as well as representations and warranties regarding matters such as that the shareholders themselves satisfy the exercise conditions of the Stock Acquisition Rights, indemnity clauses and other covenants, and information necessary to record shares in the Company to be delivered to the account of the Entitled Shareholders) and other documents necessary for the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights to the Entitled Shareholders. After the gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, the shareholders will be issued shares in the Company in the number equivalent to the Applicable Number of Shares for each Stock Acquisition Right (If the board of directors determines in the Gratis Allotment Resolution that, if the number of shares of the Company to be delivered to the holders of the Stock Acquisition Rights includes a fraction of less than one, the Company will round off that fraction, then the number of shares shall be that after such round-off.) upon submitting these necessary documents during the exercise period of Stock Acquisition Rights and by paying in the prescribed manner an amount equivalent to the exercise price determined in the Gratis Allotment Resolution, which will be an amount within the range of one yen and one-half of the fair market value of the Company's stock per Stock Acquisition Right, as a general rule. The Non-Qualified Parties intending to exercise Stock Acquisition Rights must follow the Company's separate determination in accordance with (g) of 3.3, 'Outline of the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights.'

If the Company's shareholders do not exercise their Stock Acquisition Rights or pay the amount equivalent to the exercise price, the shares they hold in the Company will be diluted by the exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights by other shareholders.

However, it is also possible for the Company to acquire the Stock Acquisition Rights of all shareholders other than Non-Qualified Parties and, in exchange, deliver shares in the Company, in accordance with the procedures set out in (iii) below. If the Company carries out such an acquisition procedure, all shareholders other than Non-Qualified Parties will come to receive shares in the Company without exercising their Stock Acquisition Rights or paying an amount equivalent to the exercise price and, in principle, there will be no subsequent dilution of the shares they hold in the Company.

(iii) Procedures for the Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by the Company

If the Company's board of directors determines to acquire the Stock Acquisition Rights, the Company will acquire the Stock Acquisition Rights in accordance with the statutory procedures from the shareholders other than Non-Qualified Parties, on the date separately determined by the Company's board of directors and, in exchange, deliver shares in the Company. In this case, the shareholders concerned will come to receive shares in the Company in the number equivalent to the Applicable Number of Shares for each Stock Acquisition Right (If the board of directors determines in the Gratis Allotment Resolution that, if the number of shares of the Company to be delivered to the holders of the Stock Acquisition Rights includes a fraction of less than one, the Company will round off that fraction, then the number of shares shall be that after such round-off.) as consideration for the acquisition by the Company of those Stock Acquisition Rights, without paying an amount equivalent to the exercise price. However, in such case, the shareholders concerned will be separately requested to submit, in the form prescribed by the Company, a written undertaking including representations and warranties regarding matters such as the fact that they are not Non-Qualified Parties, indemnity clauses and other covenants.

If the Gratis Allotment Resolution provides for the matters relating to acquisition of the Stock Acquisition Rights from the Non-Qualified Parties or other acquisition, the Company may take procedures in accordance with the provisions of the Gratis Allotment Resolution.

In addition, the Company will disclose information to or notify all of its shareholders with respect to the particulars of the allotment method, exercise method and method for acquisition by the Company after any resolution in relation to a gratis allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights, so we request that shareholders check these details at that time.

IV. Rationale of the Plan

1. Ensure and Enhance the Corporate Value of the Company/the Common Interests of Shareholders

The Plan was established under the Basic Policy, with the purpose of maintaining the corporate value of the Company / the common interests of its shareholders by ensuring the necessary time and information is made available for the shareholders to decide whether or not to accept the Acquisition of share certificates, etc. of the Company and for the board of directors to present an alternative proposal to the shareholders, and by enabling the Company to negotiate with the Acquirer for the benefit of the shareholders when the Acquisition is to be effected.

2. Satisfying the Requirements of the Guidelines for Takeover Defense Measures

The Plan fully satisfies the three principles set out in the Guidelines Regarding Takeover Defense for the Purposes of Ensuring and Enhancing Corporate Value and Shareholders' Common Interests released by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry and the Ministry of Justice on May 27, 2005. These principles are namely:

- ensuring and enhancing the corporate value / shareholders' common interests;
- prior disclosure and shareholder intent; and
- ensuring necessity and appropriateness.

In addition, in establishing the Plan, the Company considered discussions and other factors related to "Takeover Defense Measures in Light of Recent Environmental Changes" issued by the Corporate Value Study Group on June 30, 2008. Further, the Plan conforms to the purposes of the guidelines for introduction of takeover defense measures set out by the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

3. Placing High Value on the Intent of Shareholders

As described in III.3.4, 'Effective Period, Abolition and Amendment of the Plan,' the Company will seek shareholders' approval for the renewal of the Plan at the 117th Shareholders Meeting to reflect the intent of the shareholders. If the shareholders approve the renewal of the Plan at the 117th Shareholders Meeting, the Plan will be effective until the conclusion of the ordinary general meeting of shareholders relating to the final fiscal year ending within three years of the conclusion of the 117th Shareholders Meeting.

Further, as described in section (g) of III.3.1 'Procedures for Triggering the Plan', the Company's board of directors may, in certain cases, confirm the intent of the Company's shareholders regarding the implementation of the gratis allotment of the Stock Acquisition Rights at the Confirmation Meeting.

In addition, the Plan is subject to a so-called sunset clause setting the Effective Period after the renewal of approximately three years, and if, even before the expiration of the Effective Period, the Company's general shareholders meeting or the Company's board of directors resolves to abolish the Plan, the Plan will be abolished in accordance with the resolution. In this regard, the life of the Plan depends on the intent of the Company's shareholders.

4. Emphasis on the Decisions of Independent Parties Such As Outside Directors and Obtaining the Advice of Third-Party Experts

The Company must obtain a recommendation from the Independent Committee, solely composed of outside directors, outside corporate auditors or experts who are independent, when making decisions for triggering the Plan.

Further, the Independent Committee may obtain advice from independent third-party experts at the Company's expense, which is a mechanism to even further ensure the objectivity and fairness of the decisions made by the Independent Committee.

5. Establishment of Reasonable Objective Requirements

As set out above at section (e) of III.3.1, 'Procedures for Triggering the Plan,' and section III.3.2, 'Requirements for the Gratis Allotment of Stock Acquisition Rights,' the Company believes that the Plan is established so that it will not be triggered unless reasonable and objective requirements have been satisfied, and ensures a structure to eliminate arbitrary triggering by the Company's board of directors.

6. No Dead-Hand or Slow-Hand Takeover Defense Measures

The Plan may be abolished by a meeting of the board of directors composed of directors who are nominated by a person who acquires a large number of share certificates of the Company and appointed at the Company's general shareholders' meeting. Therefore, the Plan is not a dead-hand takeover defense measure (a takeover defense measure in which even if a majority of the members of the board of directors are replaced, the triggering of the measure cannot be stopped). Also, as the term of office of the Company's director is one year and the Company has not adopted a system of staggered terms of office for the board of directors, the Plan is not a slow-hand takeover defense measure either (a takeover defense measure in which triggering takes more time to stop due to the fact that all members of the board of directors cannot be replaced at once).
